

Questions below are separated by a line, questions within each block have similarities to each other and may provide evidence for some of the questions posed by the other questions in the same block. Questions in different blocks do not have similarities to each other.

Percentage of older adult men who are up to date with select clinical preventive services',

Percentage of older adult women who are up to date with select clinical preventive services',

Percentage of older adults currently not providing care who expect to provide care for someone with health problems in the next two years',

Percentage of older adults who provided care for a friend or family member within the past month',

Percentage of older adults who provided care to a friend or family member for six months or more',

Percentage of older adults who provided care for someone with dementia or other cognitive impairment within the past month',

Percentage of older adults who report having a disability (includes limitations related to sensory or mobility impairments or a physical, mental, or emotional condition)',

Percentage of older adults who reported that as a result of subjective cognitive decline or memory loss that they need assistance with day-to-day activities',

Percentage of older adults getting sufficient sleep (>6 hours)',

Percentage of older adults who are currently obese, with a body mass index (BMI) of 30 or more',

Percentage of older adults who are experiencing frequent mental distress',

Percentage of older adults who have been told they have high blood pressure who report currently taking medication for their high blood pressure',

Percentage of older adults who have ever been told by a health professional that they have high blood pressure',

Percentage of older adults who have not had any leisure time physical activity in the past month',

Percentage of older adults who report having lost 5 or fewer teeth due to decay or gum disease',

Percentage of older adults with subjective cognitive decline or memory loss who reported talking with a health care professional about it',

Percentage of older adults who self-reported that their health is "fair" or "poor"',

Percentage of older adults who self-reported that their health is "good", "very good", or "excellent"',

Percentage of older adults with a lifetime diagnosis of depression',

Total 22 Questions

Interesting questions 19